La Verne

Wow, are you filled up, thanks to Bonnie Will just say this. You a sweet guy, La Verne.
It is a lot nicer, coming to school with some one like you around, to put a little life into it. Hope to see you around next yr. also! Don't forget Thursday & Fri. at plans!

LaVerne

Best of everything to you. You are a real nice guy! Hope you go out for all sports next year, to help our school out. Best of luck to you and Bonnie. Bonnie and you make a nice, cute couple. I will never forget all the talks we had, Bonnie, Bill our main subjects. Good luck in your Senior year.

Best of luck in everything to you.
Be Good!

Always,
Judy M.

LaVerne,

Best of luck to a real swell guy. I really got to know you until this past year, but your sure a hell of a good guy. Will have to get the rounded up sometime and go on a few because I'm pretty damn thirsty right now.
We sure have had some wild parties especially, right that night you were with Judy B. When you get mad at Bonnie please don't get drunk so bad as you did last time. I really wanted a beer that night, but I guess trits didn't care for it. I'm glad to see you and Bonnie back together again and don't you dare turn her loose.
You take care of your truck and don't be smashing to windows with your head. I have nothing else to say, but take it easy.
(Sandy R.)

DEDICATION

We the Senior Class of Nineteen-Fifty-Nine dedicate this, our Annual, The Earthman, to the memory of our friend and classmate, James Gilbert Kahl.

"I've lots of luck to a swell junior boy! may the best of luck follow you and your truck. (esp when you're drunk) Don't forget the good times we had this year, don't forget the night with Kenny and man that was quite some night!
"Do you know what I mean?" Take it easy "on" Bonnie, and don't you ^{two} fight all summer long, Take it easy on the Travers, you

JUNIOR PROM

The Class of 1959 held their Junior Prom April 19, 1958 with Dale Jaeger reigning as King and Gloria Dauck as Queen. The theme for the festive evening was "April Love". This was depicted by phrases of the song, "April Love is for the Very Young," "An April Day Will Suddenly Bring Showers," "April Day" and "April Love Will Slip Right Through Your Fingers". A false ceiling, made in the shape of a fan, accented the decorations of blue, pink, yellow, green, and white.

King Dale and Queen Gloria were crowned in front of a heart made of "tissue flowers" with a silhouette of a boy and girl.

Layton Blaine's orchestra provided the music as the court assisted in leading the grand march. Members of the court were: Ruth Howery and Calvin Tollefson, Krystal Olson and Oscar Wendt, Margaret Martinson and Gene Schumann, Karen Garfoot and Gale Urbainzick, Judie Barsness and Doug Sveum, Ardis Turk and Darvin Goldben. Crown bearers were David Weber and Susan Dauck.

Crown bearers were:
Debbie Hosely and Dennis Tollefson.

The Homecoming Festivities of 1958 The Senior Class came up with an ognition for the football team and stunt. Amusing stunts were performed were crowned by Coach Oscar and

A large crowd attended the annual Homecoming Dance on Saturday night, spurred on, no doubt, by the victory over Barneveld on Friday night.

Festivities

The theme chosen for the dance was "Autumn Leaves." Members of the court were: Dorothy Walstad and Gene Brabender, Gloria Dauck and Dale Jaeger, Christine Amble and Gene Schumann, Karen Garfoot and Peter Thorson.

 I won't forget Bessie Jo

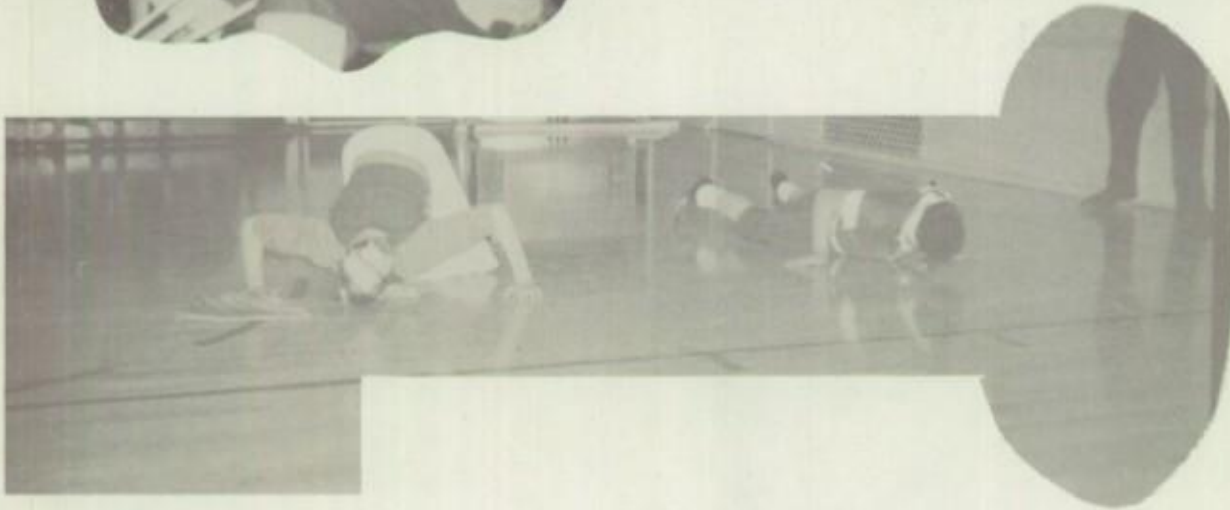

MID-WINTER BALL

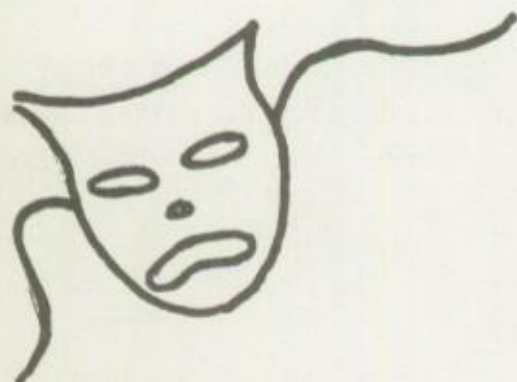

The strains of the "Twiligher's " music led the 1959 Mid-Winter Ball, January 19. King Douglas Sveum and Queen Judie Barsness were crowned in front of the scene depicting the theme, "Winter Wonderland." The court consisted of: Karen Garfoot, Gene Schumann, Margaret Martinsen, Dale Jaeger, Ruth Howery, Gale Urbanzick, Dorothy Walstad, and Calvin Tollefson. Crown bearers were Pamela Bailey and Wayne Barsness. Skaters, snowmen, snow-sprayed trees, snowflakes and deer also helped to portray the winter scenes.

You were great in foot-ball, Basket-ball and track. Keep up the good work honey see you out for them all again next year that's money? Denise Jo

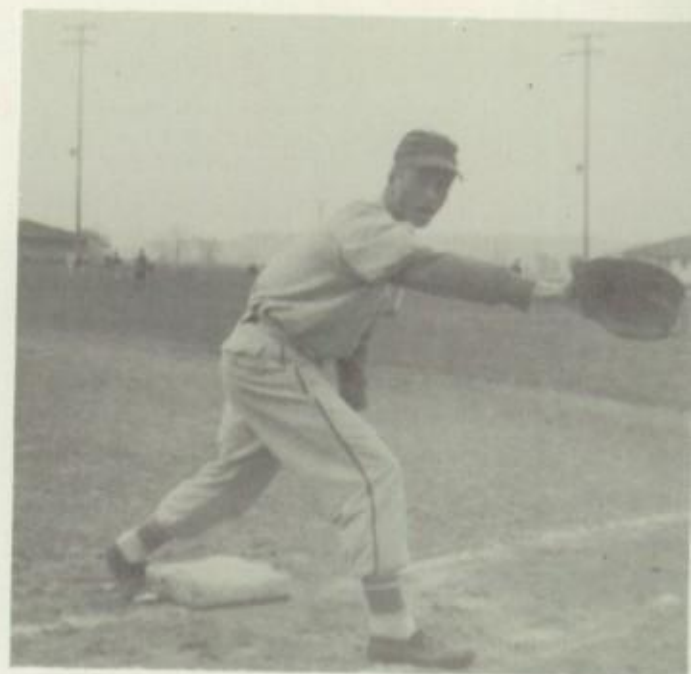

The '58 baseball season was very exciting and also very rewarding. For the first time since 1941 a Black Earth team won the Championship in baseball. After winning the Tri-County Championship from Prairie du Sac in a playoff game at Black Earth, the team went on to the tournament at Sauk City. They again beat Prairie to go on to the district tournament at Middleton and played Waunakee for the district title. Black Earth beat Waunakee and were then qualified for the Sectional meet at Lake Mills. Everyone had a bad day and they lost the first game to Monticello in extra innings, 6-5. Although the team has lost three seniors who played a very big part in last year's Championship, the '59 team is looking forward to a Championship. Their record for the '58 season was 11 wins, 4 losses.

La Verne:

These pictures of you are absolutely dreamy, I wish that I could take them and frame them. But that's kinda impossible. The one that Vicky took of you is adorable & - that's the one I'm going to frame. May? Denise

Leading the Parade

Hi Honey;

Now! we really get ourselves into some dilly fights don't we, most of them are my fault though aren't they?

True few next year in school and in later life I should not have told you that though because you're doing a pretty good job of it right now, I only hope that I can share all your fondest memories with you.
No fight sure, but it's only because I love you.

Take it easy behind the curtains and playing "Spin the bottle" ~~unless~~ ^{mess} in with you.

Shake up if you look at girls though honey, just so you don't stare. I'll admit we got loads of competition with all these HOT ZOWIE girls roaming around waiting for a nice good-looking guy like you to come around.

You're absolutely the dreamiest baby. Attracted - some, nice personality, cute walk, talk and smile, sweet disposition, cool and collected temper, (ha! ha!) dreamy hair, dreamy clothes, hot car and a good reputation.

Bill Butler just talked to me honey, your not jealous though are you? You never get jealous darn it! I'm the one who gets jealous all of the time but that's okay we won't sweat that stuff.

Well honey, there isn't much more to say except that "I Love you" more and more each and every day. Your sweet honey, just stay that way. Ha! Ha! I'm a poet and don't know it! (My feet are soreful too) (All my love)

Louise Jo

La Verne,
 Loads of luck to a swell

La Verne:

What the heck are you trying to do.
With all that beer down you, you would think your blood was alcohol. You had better watch that stuff because stuff in the world for you if you want a hangover.

I suppose after last night the truck is in pretty good running order. Yi! What a maniac.
You know I am making this all up so you don't have to worry about it. Ha-Ha Do you know it has been two days since we last got drunk. Come on man you're slipping.

What's this I hear about you and Bonnie getting married. I don't know if I should associate with you or not, but I guess it's alright as long as you keep it quiet. Been getting into anymore fights lately? I didn't think so, after those five you had last you should rest for awhile. Man, this is the craziest book I ever did read. Where's that little black book you had before you started going steady with Bonnie. I may be able to use it someday. I see you were playing (spin the bottle) with Krystal. Wait until next year, man this place will be the hottest after we get through with it.

"F+E"

Lower, ^{me} I have been waiting to write in this! you little drunkard! ha! ha! you'd better watch where your giving those pickles to B.B. They're sort of low! Or second thought you'd better not look! ha! ha!

When our birthday rolls around again, I'll be thinking of you, while I don't see the first five, after that I don't see I just tip it. I'll probably see you up there again before this year is over. Remind me, I must buy you a drink! I (chick?)

Don't forget the birthday parties we had! You should remember, "Spin the Bottle." I sure do!!
They sure were some good ones.
I suppose you have showed B.B. how to play "Spin the Bottle." Of not you'd better get with it. Just one sentence of advice, "Don't let over 7

Bonnie get away from you she's a real sweet kid and she likes you alot!
Well, good luck to a sweet guy. See you up at Joe's.

As ever
Krip

P.S. I'm thirty!

La Verne
Best of luck to a sweet cousin. Take it easy on your girl (Bonnie) I'm really sorry if I caused any trouble that Friday night. Keep up the wonderful work and the good personality and you'll be a success in anything you try. I'll be a success a cousin with.

My Darling LaVonne;
The best of everything & you in everything and everything you do Remember money, no matter what I do or say I'll love you all and forever.

Your mother, dad and sister are wonderful people, even though they don't think much of me I think that they are wonderful.

We've had some wonderful times together. Through the bad times and the good times I've loved you always.

Next year go out for all the sports that you can participate in because I want to watch you play foot ball, baseball, basketball and during home ec class I love to see you out for track.

The reason that I got you to Harris is because you didn't have a radio in your car or your truck also I wanted you to remember every time you turn it on that I love you.

I like to flirt as you know very well but its only because I want people to like me.

Remember the time that we went to Madison with your folks and your sister and we couldnt find the place where she was supposed to work at and I wanted you to kiss me and you wouldnt? I hope so. Remember also that that night up at Club 18 I really didnt realize what I was doing.

I'm writing awfully big but you know the reason why.

Please love me darling ask love you, I want you I need you, I love you a whole lot please love me.

All My Love Always to the most wonderful guy in the world Bonnie D.
